

EQUITY IN EDUCATION

This 8" x 8" sampler drawing is based on the August 2020 Block of the Month designed for Social Justice Sewing Academy by Ben Millet, inspired by an original quilt block by SJSA Artist Stephanie R.

Printer Test
1" Square

Our 2020 Sampler Equity in Education can be used for free, noncommercial use.
www.sjsacademy.com
Make it. Share it. But don't sell it.

Use the graphic pictured here as a guide to choosing thread colors to stitch in each area. Work in the style of your choice or try a mix of fabric appliqué and embroidery.

We would love to see what you make! Tag us on Instagram: @sjsacademy

To learn more about the issue of equity in education we recommend reading Pushout by Monique W. Morris. Monique's writing lays bare how much more we can do for Black girls and young women in their schooling to ensure they are afforded the same grace as their White classmates.

Watch Monique's TedTalk The Criminalization of Black Girls in Schools on YouTube at: <https://bit.ly/39bML8t>

